REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Referring to claims 1-7, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a fastdata register configured to operate such that a fastdata access completes when a processor access is pending and said processor access is to a predetermined area of dmseg memory, in the scope and context of claim 1.

Referring to claims 8-17, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a SprAcc bit in said fastdata register indicative of a request for completion of a pending processor access, in the scope and context of claim 8, 13.

Referring to claims 18-27, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest confirming said processor access is pending and a target address associated with said processor access falls within a predetermined acceptable range of memory addresses, in the scope and context of claim 18.

Referring to claims 28-29, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a fastdata access completes when a processor access is pending and said processor access is to a predetermined area of memory, in the scope and context of claim 28.

Referring to claims 30-33, the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest receiving second control information that confirms said processor access was pending and a target address associated with said processor access falls within a predetermined acceptable range of memory addresses, in the scope and context of claim 30.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
